Message From the East

Hello, Brethren,

It has been a while since we have had a newsletter. I did want to have one to finish out the year. It has been a fantastic year for the lodge, our charities and for me personally. Being Master one time is a great honor, but being fortunate to be in the East twice is a double treat. Each year was different in the sense that 2002 was not real busy, but 2007 has been so busy, it seems it should not be over already. Thanks for the great support from all officers and members. We are the best lodge in the state and there is no doubt we will keep that status. Hope everyone will have a safe and enjoyable holiday. Next year will be great with the officers coming up. Also, many thanks to the Eastern Star for all of their support.

Thanks again

Fraternally yours,

Mike Puckett, WM
